Overview

Rosemary (Rosmarinus officinalis) is a Mediterranean herb. Its oil-soluble extract is widely used by food makers as a natural antioxidant. It is not mainly an Indian crop, so Faar Earth Collective Exports sources it to order through qualified manufacturers. Typical grades are carnosic acid 10%, 20% or 40%, and rosmarinic acid 5%, 10% or 20%, by HPLC.

Buyer notes

Say whether you need the oil-soluble type (carnosic acid) or the water-soluble type (rosmarinic acid). In the EU, rosemary extract used as an additive is E392, with a defined specification and use levels, so check these for your food category. Ask for the HPLC report, solvent residue results and pesticide residues.

Percentages shown are typical commercial grades. The exact grade and test method are confirmed on the COA / TDS for each order.

Before you book

Weight per container depends on bulk density, pack size and whether the cargo is palletised. We quote a load only after the manufacturer confirms the pack size and the forwarder confirms the container. Wooden pallets must be ISPM-15 heat-treated and stamped, or use plastic pallets. Use a food-grade, clean, dry, odour-free container, with a liner and desiccant for sea freight of spices, seeds and powders.
